Project SUCCEED

PERSONNEL POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Vision Statement

Project SUCCEED (Schools Under Contract Creating Enriching Extended Days) helps give youth the skills and opportunities they need to be successful academically, socially and emotionally in a safe and supervised environment.

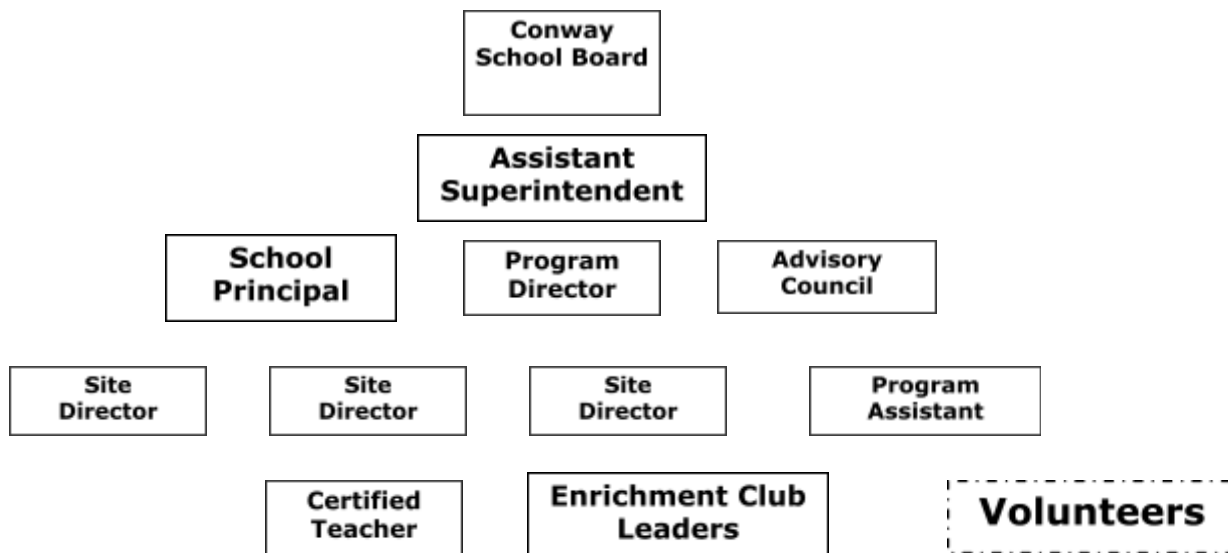

General Information

Statement of Purpose

The purpose of Project SUCCEED is to provide before and after school activities, academic, enrichment, recreation, and care. The program provides a safe, secure, and enriching environment for school-age children supervised by trained, caring adults.

1. The purpose of the personnel policies is to provide each staff member with clearly defined employment policies.
 - a. Personnel policies are based on mutual respect and trust. Each position is equally valuable and essential to the well being of the children.
 - b. Each staff member is provided a copy of these policies at the time of employment and whenever policies are revised.
 - c. The policies shall be regularly updated to reflect program policy changes.
 - d. Any situation not dealt with in this manual is handled by the Project SUCCEED Program Director and/or School Principal.

Organization Structure

Employment

General Procedure - Project SUCCEED, as an integral part of the Conway School District, comports with all Conway School District policies and procedures.

The Project SUCCEED Director, or designee, is responsible for employing professional and supportive staff in accordance with staffing requirement and policies and procedures of SAU # 9.

Project SUCCEED will recruit, employ, and reward Project SUCCEED employees on the basis of the capabilities and qualifications for job requirements, without discrimination because of race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, or disability.

Upon employment, each afterschool staff person will have, at his or her cost, a criminal record check through the Conway Police Department.

A. Probationary Period and Rehiring Practices

Each employee is hired on an annual basis with a probationary basis for six months. If job performance is unsatisfactory, the employee may be dismissed. Probationary employees may be released without cause. An employee's probationary period may be extended for a specific time period. Employees are evaluated yearly for rehiring.

B. Terminations

1. Resignation: Two weeks written notice is required.
2. Dismissal: Employees who are separated from employment by management action because of misconduct or failure to maintain appropriate work performance standards are considered to be dismissed. Normally, dismissal is preceded by at least one written warning, unless unsatisfactory performance or misconduct is so serious as to warrant immediate dismissal.

Written warnings shall describe the nature of the offense or deficiency, the method or methods of corrective action, the amount of time allowed for corrective action to occur, and the probable action to be taken if the offense is repeated or the deficiency persists. The warning shall state the employee's right to request review of the action by the Project SUCCEED Program Director or Assistant Superintendent.

C. Performance Evaluation

1. Each staff member will set one to three initiatives within three months of employment and update them annually.
2. Each staff member will be evaluated at least once a year based on their initiatives, job description, knowledge of the job, quality of work, interest, dependability, initiative, growth, attendance, collaboration with staff, students, and school personnel. Program Director will evaluate Site Directors and Site Directors, with Program Director, will evaluate site staff.

III. Salary Administration

A. Salary Determination

Salaries are determined by the Conway School District Policy and Project SUCCEED Grants.

I. Employee Benefits

A. Compensation

1. Project SUCCEED carries Worker's Compensation for all employees. Any injury, occurring to a staff member while performing duty, must be reported through an injury report, on file at your school office. Any workman's compensation claim needs to be filed within 24 hours.
2. Project SUCCEED contributes toward unemployment and disability compensation for all employees.
3. Project SUCCEED contributes, along with the employee, toward Social Security and NH State Retirement.

B. Extended Leave

1. Employees who need extended leave must request such in writing. They may be rehired at their same position if one is available at such time as they are ready to return to work.

II. Employee Relations, Procedures, and Responsibilities

A. Grievances

1. In the event an employee has a grievance involving working conditions, this should be discussed with the immediate supervisor who will attempt to resolve the situation.
2. If the grievance remains unresolved, it should be discussed with the Program Director who will make every attempt to resolve the situation.
3. If the employee continues to be dissatisfied, or if the employee has been dismissed or suspended and is not satisfied, an appeal may be made in writing to the Assistant Superintendent of SAU #9.
4. Within two weeks of receipt of written grievance, the Assistant Superintendent will respond in writing and set a hearing date with the employee.
5. The Assistant Superintendent shall notify the employee in writing of his or her decision within one week after the hearing.

B. Working Hours

The Program Director or Site Director makes a work schedule for employees, to fit the hours of operation and program schedule. Staff are compensated for prep time.

C. Time Sheets and Pay Periods

Pay periods are bi-weekly. (Please see attached timesheet example) Timesheets are due Wednesday at noon on alternate pay weeks in the Project SUCCEED mailbox or folder. They are to be done on a computer with the appropriate columns filled in. Checks are delivered to employees at their site or mailed depending on individual preference. Paychecks will not be dispersed until the Project SUCCEED contract has been signed and returned to the SAU9 office.

D. Absence

It is recognized in programs of this nature that emergencies and sudden illnesses will occur and will require short-term emergency substitute staff. The employee should alert his/her site-director at the absolute earliest time and find his or her own substitute. If the employee cannot find a qualified substitute, it is then the site director's job to find one. If on-site staff cannot secure a substitute, the Director may be contacted. It is the employee's responsibility to have a timesheet submitted by the substitute. Staff is paid only for hours worked.

E. Tardiness

It is the responsibility of each employee to be present at the work site at the regularly scheduled time. If you are going to be late, please let the Site Director know. Excess tardiness can result in termination.

F. Dress Code

Project SUCCEED staff is expected to dress and present themselves in a clean and appropriate manner, following the guidelines of the Conway School District.

G. Cancellation

If school is cancelled so are Project SUCCEED programs. Staff is not compensated for these days. If Project SUCCEED is cancelled early during a school day, each site will be notified as soon as the superintendent notifies the Project SUCCEED office. If staff members choose, with the approval of the Site Director, to stay and work on program development they will be compensated.

H. Staff Meetings

All Project SUCCEED staff are expected to attend regular meetings, as set by the Site Directors and the Director of Project SUCCEED. Staff members are compensated for their time.

I. In-services, Workshops, Job Development

Opportunities for in-service training and other workshops will be shared with Project SUCCEED staff. If training is scheduled during program hours without children, staff members are expected to attend. If there is training provided outside of program hours, a stipend may or may not be awarded, depending on relevance or availability of funds.

We generally try to meet as a whole program 2-3 times annually.

J. Facilities Management

Project SUCCEED staff are responsible for leaving space used in any building in the same, or better, condition as it was found.

Children are encouraged to participate in site clean-up tasks as a group, with the understanding that everyone benefits from a clean program as we are sharing space.

All program staff monitor the need for maintenance of equipment and/or supplies, and are to notify their supervisor of any necessary repairs.

K. Purchasing, Supplies, and Transportation

Staff may request needed materials from the Site Director, who will order materials through the Program Director or Administrative Assistant. Orders need to be submitted the week before they are needed. Project SUCCEED staff may purchase up to $50.00 in materials and submit a receipt for reimbursement.

L. Responsibilities for Children

Only the following individuals are approved to interact with children while they are in attendance at Project SUCCEED:

Project SUCCEED staff and substitutes; school staff; Parents/Guardians; and approved Community Volunteers. All volunteers must be screened by the Project SUCCEED Program Director and/or building principal. All adults must have a background check.

M. Confidentiality

All information about the students and the families that we serve is considered confidential. Staff should not be taking photos of students unless approved by the Site Director. Please be sure that if you are using a student's photo, that the release on the student's registration form has been signed.

In working closely with the SAU, with permission of caregivers, information may be shared back and forth in the best of interest of our participants. At all times, this information should be protected and held with the utmost confidentiality.

N. Sexual Harassment

Project SUCCEED follows the Conway School District Policy, which may be found on file at any site in the school office or at the Project SUCCEED office.
